- Lockdown because of Corona is as severe as it sounds. We all are grounded in our homes and are not even allowed to meet our friends and relatives. Although it does have an everlasting and unforgettable impact on our lives by making us realise our roots that is our 'family'. We are grounded but we are still with our near and dear ones and that we all celebrated in our own unique way . Share social, mental and emotional changes that you have observed in yours and your parents' lives during the 'period of lockdown' in the form of a poem, diary entry or power point presentation.
(Note: If you will prepare ppt then at least five slides should be made excluding the slides sharing your details. Maximum slides to be made by the students should not exceed fifteen slides)
(Content should be written in not less than 200 words for diary entry and for poem a minimum of four stanzas must be there in not less than four lines each)
- Pick any one article from the English newspaper and paste it in the project file. Search the prepositions, verbs, nouns and adjectives in that article and note that in a tabular form.
